Invitation to an upcoming Money Smart Train-the-Trainer workshop from FDIC

The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) cordially invites you to attend a Money Smart Train-the-Trainer workshop. Attending the workshop will provide you with tips and strategies for teaching the Money Smart financial education curriculum, as well as provide a “hands-on” opportunity to teach portions of the curriculum.

The workshop will introduce you to the enhanced Money Smart curriculum that is scheduled for release in early 2010. The training will include an overview of the new components of the curriculum and how to effectively utilize it to help people learn how to better manage their finances.

This invitation is extended to anyone who is interested in teaching, or who has been teaching, Money Smart. The workshop is free. Workshop attendees will be provided with a light continental breakfast and lunch.

To indicate if you would like to attend, please RSVP by forwarding the information requested on the attached RSVP form by January 15. All attendees must register in advance; it is not possible to register on the day of the event. Since seating is limited, it is advantageous to return your RSVP as soon as possible. You will be notified of the status of your RSVP via e-mail.

WHEN: Wednesday, January 27, 2010

TIME: 9:00 a.m. – Continental breakfast and registration
9:30 a.m. (sharp) – Workshop begins
3:00 p.m. – Train the Trainer Workshop ends

WHERE: Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC)
550 17th Street, NW, 4th Floor Conference Room 4205
Washington, DC 20429

(Across from the Old-Executive Office Building at the corner of 17th and F Street; 3-4 blocks from the Farragut West and Farragut North Metro stations)
