The 2010 Montgomery College Money Management Day in Maryland

The following comes from ASEC Partner Montgomery County Coalition for Financial Literacy.

The 2010 Montgomery College Money Management Day is an one-day on campus outreach to help students and staff of the Montgomery College in Montgomery County Maryland to learn about money management and personal finance. It is jointly hosted by the Montgomery County Coalition for Financial Literacy and the Montgomery College. There are three events which will be held from 10 am to 1 pm at the following campuses on the following dates:

- April 5th (Rockville Campus)
- April 6th (Germantown Campus)
- April 14th (Tacoma Park/Silver Spring Campus)

There will be a scavenger hunt with gift cards for the students at all three events. Free hotdogs will be served at the Rockville Campus to attract the students to see the exhibits. If your organization is interested in being an exhibitor at any of these events please see the registration form below.
