Demystifying Social Security: Academy for Interns ~ Free Seminar ~ July 22, 2010

The following comes from ASEC Partner, National Academy of Social Insurance \(NASI\).

On Thursday, July 22, 2010, the National Academy of Social Insurance (NASI) is hosting our yearly event, Demystifying Social Security: Academy for Interns.

This day-long event, held every summer since 2005, will give interns the opportunity to learn, discuss, and debate the long-term staying power and impact of Social Security. The event will feature prominent guest speakers, expert panels, interactive activities, and networking opportunities.

Topics Include:

- Why is Social Security Important?
- Social Security: How Does it Work?
- Social Security: How Big Is The Financing Problem, And How Can We Pay For What We Want?
- Unfiltered: Straight Talk on Social Security
- Now What? - How Can I Use This Information and Experience?

A light breakfast and full lunch will be provided and door prizes awarded. Join us on July 22, 2010 for a discussion about the present and future of Social Security at Demystifying Social Security: Academy for Interns.

If you know an intern or student who would be interested in attending Demystifying Social Security: Academy for Interns, please forward this email.
