

America Saves Week is February 20 – February 27, 2011.
Go to www.americasavesweek.org and learn how you and your organization can participate.

October 13th Financial Literacy Summit in New Jersey

The following comes from ASEC Partner, New Jersey Coalition for Financial Education.

On October 13, 2010, where will YOU be when..

- Willa Spicer, Assistant Commissioner of the Department of Education, addresses the importance of financial literacy education in today's school systems?
- When Muriel Siebert shares her secrets on how she became "the First Woman on Wall Street"?
- When Elisabeth Learnly, Consumer Correspondent for ABC News unveils the Top 5 Costs and how cutting them could save you thousands?
- When Thomas Considine, Commissioner of Banking and Insurance, explores the resources available to support instruction of financial literacy in grades K-12.

The answer is clear. Join New Jersey educators, administrators, economic and education policymakers, corporate members, and nonprofit organizations for the New Jersey Financial Literacy Summit.

NEW JERSEY FINANCIAL LITERACY SUMMIT

Financial Literacy: An Imperative for All NJ Students

The summit, scheduled to take place on Wednesday October 13, 2010 at the Busch Campus Center at Rutgers University in Piscataway, NJ, aims to raise awareness of the importance of financial literacy education and the resource available to support instruction in grades k-12, as well as the implementation of the new financial literacy high school graduation requirement. Don't miss out on this great opportunity! To register, go to <http://education.state.nj.us/events/>, click on October 13 and select New Jersey Financial Literacy Summit. Registration deadline is September 30, 2010.

Further information "New Jersey Financial Literacy Summit -- Financial Literacy: An Imperative for All NJ Students"