Talking with Young Kids About Money July 23rd Chat

Please join us for an upcoming chat on “Talking with Young Kids About Money”; it will take place on July 23rd at 11AM Eastern Time. You can access the chat at <http://connect.extension.iastate.edu/managingmoney>. As many of you know, kids learn about money management from both formal education and social learning. We want to think about the youth development issues, strategies, successes, resources and expectations about impact during this chat. Our panelists include Kimberly Nute-Jones, University of Illinois Extension; Megan O’Neil-Haight, University of Maryland, and Erica Tobe, Michigan State University Extension. Your moderator will be Michael Gutter, University of Florida. You can view their bios at http://cop.extension.org/wiki/Talking_with_Young_Kids_about_Money.

You are encouraged to invite families you may be working with or that you have in your classes to attend and ask questions.

As a reminder, these chat sessions are text only, there is no audio feed. If you are unable to attend, we will be posting the chat record as soon as possible following the chat. You may email Michael Gutter msgutter@ufl.edu to be notified when the chat record is posted.
