EBRI Hires Director of Media and Public Affairs

WASHINGTON—The nonpartisan Employee Benefit Research Institute (EBRI) has hired Tracey Young as its director of Media and Public Affairs.

Young has worked in the nonprofit and association arena for more than 10 years and was the media relations manager at the American Academy of Actuaries from 2001–2005. Most recently, she was communications manager for the Prevent Cancer Foundation Company in Alexandria, VA. She holds a bachelor's degree in journalism from Central State University and a master's of journalism from Marshall University.

Her responsibilities at EBRI include managing all news media, promoting EBRI's educational initiatives, and serving as the external liaison for the Institute. Young can be contacted by phone at (202) 775-6329 or by e-mail at young@ebri.org

EBRI is a nonpartisan research institute based in Washington, DC, that focuses on health, savings, retirement, and economic security issues. EBRI does not lobby and does not take policy positions. www.ebri.org
