

For Immediate Release: May 9, 2016

Contact: Stephen Blakely, EBRI: 202/775-6341, blakely@ebri.org
David Smith, EBRI: 202/572-7422, smith@ebri.org

EBRI's 78th Policy Forum on May 12:

“Innovations in Employee Engagement in Health,” and “Retirement Challenges and Reforms”

WASHINGTON—The nonpartisan Employee Benefit Research Institute (EBRI) will hold its 78th policy forum on Thursday, May 12, in Washington, DC on the topics “Innovations in Employee Engagement in Health,” and “Retirement Challenges and Reforms.”

The policy forum is open to the public and registration is complimentary. It will be held Thursday, May 12, 2016, from 8:30 a.m. – 12:50 p.m., at 20 F Street, NW, Suite 1000, Washington, DC 20001.

The full agenda is online here. Online rsvp/registration for the free event is available here.

A live webcast of the event is online here.

Panels of national experts will present and discuss key issues in both the health and retirement segments, including:

- Dr. Kyu Rhee, IBM's Chief Health Officer.
- J. David Johnson, Vice President and Senior Consultant for Segal Consulting / Sibson Consulting.
- Alan Momeyer, Vice President of Human Resources Emeritus, The Loews Corporation.
- Michael Thompson, Principal PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, and President and CEO-Elect of the National Business Coalition on Health.
- Peter Goldbach, MD, Chief Medical Officer, Health Dialog.
- G. William Hoagland, Senior Vice President, Bipartisan Policy Center.
- John Scott, Director, Retirement Savings, The Pew Charitable Trusts.
- Fredrik Axsater, Global Head of Defined Contribution, State Street Global Advisors.
- J. Spencer Williams, President and CEO, Retirement Clearinghouse.

For logistics and more information, contact David Smith, EBRI: 202/572-7422, smith@ebri.org