

Laura Stamps, Head of DE&I Strategies and Engagement, Financial Finesse

Laura's passion for Financial Wellness brought her to Financial Finesse in 2015, leaving behind a traditional sales career to focus on her interest in the roles that sociology and organizational culture play in financial behavior and related solutions. Laura has held B2B and client-facing roles at the Capital Group, J.P. Morgan Chase, GreenPath Debt Solutions, and the University of Notre Dame. She leverages her experience and education to design customized solutions that optimize employee engagement and related outcomes for diverse organizations. Additionally, she works with the Plan Sponsor Council of America (PSCA) serving on both the HSA and Education and Communication committees. Laura holds a Bachelor of Arts in Women's Studies from Indiana University, South Bend.
