

Liz Varley
Vice President, Federal Government Affairs

Liz Varley joined the company in May 2014 as Vice President in the Federal Government Affairs Office for Ameriprise Financial. She represents the company's federal legislative and regulatory interests before Congress and the Administration.

She has previously held positions in Federal Government Affairs at New York Life and at the industry trade association for broker-dealers, the Securities Industry and Financial Markets Association (SIFMA).

Ms. Varley worked in the U.S. Senate as Counsel at the Senate Special Committee on Aging and as a staff attorney for the Bipartisan Commission on Entitlements and Tax Reform. Ms. Varley graduated with a Juris Doctorate from the University of Nebraska College of Law and a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Nebraska.