Lynn White

Andrea Lynn White is the President and Chief Executive Officer of Genworth Financial, Inc's new long-term care insurance business, CareScout Insurance. She served as Chief of Staff to the President and Chief Executive Officer of Genworth Financial, Inc from 2017 through 2023, having led external and government affairs, including Genworth's advocacy efforts before federal and state lawmakers, governors, and insurance regulators, in addition to development of its corporate social responsibility/ESG initiatives.

Lynn joined Genworth's predecessor company, GE Financial Assurance, in 2001 and served in several capacities in its Human Resources before assuming responsibility for implementation of Genworth's ethics programs as the company's Corporate Ombudsperson in 2005. In that capacity, she investigated and resolved ethical complaints and other concerns directed to Genworth's Corporate Ombuds Office and its Board of Directors. She joined Genworth's Government Relations team in the company's U.S. Life Insurance business in July of 2015.

Lynn previously was employed by the law firm of LeClair Ryan in Richmond, Virginia in its Labor/Employment and Litigation practice groups. She began her career at Aetna Life Insurance Company in Middletown, Connecticut, where she was an Associate in its Management Development Program before becoming an Account Executive in Aetna's Employee Benefits Division in New York City.

Lynn earned a Bachelor of Business Administration in Finance, summa cum laude, from Howard University in Washington, D.C., and a Juris Doctor from the University of Virginia in Charlottesville, Virginia. She was admitted to the Virginia Bar in 1996.

Lynn is affiliated with several professional and public service organizations. She co-chairs the American Council of Life Insurers' Long Term Care Committee and is on the Board of the Life Insurance Council of New York. Lynn also serves on the Boards of the Alzheimer's Association of Greater Richmond, the United Way of Greater Richmond and Petersburg, and the Richmond Forum, where she was appointed Co-Chair.
