

Toni Brown, CFA

Toni Brown, CFA, leads the Retirement Strategy Group at Capital Group/American Funds. She has 31 years of investment industry experience and has been with Capital Group since 2013.

Prior to joining Capital, Toni was with Mercer Investment Consulting as director of U.S. client consulting and U.S. defined contribution leader. Before that, she was an executive vice president of Callan Associates, with management responsibilities for the San Francisco consulting office and the firm's defined contribution practice.

She holds an MBA from Arizona State University and a bachelor's degree in general business from the University of Denver. She also holds the Chartered Financial Analyst® designation.

Toni has been recognized in the 401kWire's 2012 "Hundred Most Influential People in Defined Contribution" and was honored by AI-CIO in 2013 as one of the "World's 25 Most Influential Consultants."

As a founding member and past Chair of DCIIA, Toni is committed to the organization, the research it provides and the vision of improving retirement for American workers. Toni currently is a member of the Executive Committee of DCIIA Retirement Research Center.