

Pricing Structure for EBRI Special Request Research*

Please refer to the chart below. If you have any questions, please speak with Martha Bobbino at 202/659-0670.

	CATEGORY 1	CATEGORY 2
Type of Organization	EBRI Members, ERF Partners/Contributors, Government Policy Staff (e.g., Congress, Bureau of Labor Statistics, State Legislatures, Governors' offices), and Reporters	All others
Research Time — involves EBRI staff member answering a question with materials in the staff member's office, talking with other staff members, or using the library	No Charge	$500 per hour
Special Projects Research — involves data runs with SAS (i.e., CPS, SIPP) or database searches using Dialog	$500 - $1,000 per hour for Senior Staff; $200 - $499 per hour for Junior Staff	$1,250 - $2,500 per hour for Senior Staff; $500 - $1,200 per hour for Junior Staff
Use of the EBRI Library — involves an individual from another organization coming to EBRI to use the library, by appointment with a librarian or staff member	No Charge	$500 per day, regardless of how long the individual is here. Restricted to EBRI office hours of 9:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.  Plus copy costs of $0.10 per page copied.
Faxing of Materials	No Charge	Ready Reference or EBRI Published Materials — $10 for the first page and $1 for each subsequent page. (Charges for faxing other materials are included in the per hour fee above.)
Payment Method	Prepayment by check or wire transfer.	Prepayment is required by check or wire transfer.
Self-Service Research through the World Wide Web	Always free.	Some amounts free. All EBRI monthly periodicals' executive summaries are available on the Web and full print text for purchase.

* EBRI and ERF have been advised by counsel that what is available to members must be available to others at a reasonable exchange to cover prior investments by members. Over the last 33 years, that investment totals over $100 million in expertise, databases, models, etc.