Goal of the Campaign – To increase the number of individuals who are planning and saving

Build your organization's education and action campaign promotions and events around existing programs and on the calendar of financial, education, savings, and planning events. This provides a hook for repeated communications and action opportunities to move individuals, including employees and their family members, students, clients, etc. to make saving part of every day and every decision.

Schedule of Financial Events

January
EITC Awareness Day, Jan. 27, 2017
- A national effort to increase utilization of the Earned Income Tax Credit, sponsored by the IRS

February
America Saves/Military Saves Week, February 27 – March 1, 2017
- A national effort to assist individuals to set savings goals and take action to advance towards these goals, sponsored by America Saves and the American Savings Education Council (ASEC)
- www.americasavesweek.org

March
National Consumer Protection Week (NCPW), March 5-11, 2017
- A coordinated campaign that encourages consumers nationwide to take full advantage of their consumer rights and make better-informed decisions in the marketplace.
- www.ncpw.gov

Global Money Week, March 27- April 2, 2017
• Talk, play, create, sing, read, discuss and learn about saving, money, changing economic systems and building a financial future for youth.

April – Financial Literacy Month

California Financial Literacy Month

• To highlight the importance of financial literacy and economic empowerment and to encourage all Californians to increase their understanding of saving, investing and credit choices, sponsored by the California Department of Financial Institutions.

• http://www.caflm.ca.gov/

National Employee Benefits Day, April 3, 2017

• Acknowledges trustees, administrators, corporate benefits practitioners and professional advisors for their dedication to providing quality benefits and the important role they play in their colleagues' well-being, sponsored by the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans.

• www.ifebp.org/AboutUs/NEBD/

Money Smart Week, April 22-29, 2017

• A series of free classes and activities designed to help consumers better manage their personal finances, sponsored by the Chicago Federal Reserve Bank.

National Retirement Planning Week, April 3-7, 2017

• Promotes activities that will demonstrate that it is possible to “Retire On Your Terms” if comprehensive retirement plans are properly developed and managed, sponsored by the Insured Retirement Institute.

• https://www.retireonyourterms.org/NRPW

Teach a Child to Save Day, April 28, 2017

• A national campaign that raises awareness about the important role that banks and bankers play in helping young people develop lifelong savings habits, sponsored by the American Bankers Association Education Foundation

• http://www.aba.com/Engagement/Pages/teachchildrensaves.aspx
National Credit Union Youth Month, April 1-30, 2017
• Encourage your members to get “Wild About Saving” by visiting—and saving at—their credit union, sponsored by Credit Union National Association (CUNA).
• http://www.cuna.org

May
Disability Insurance Awareness Month
• A time for disability insurance “reality check.” Take this opportunity to make sure you’d be OK financially in the event that a disability keeps you out of work for an extended period of time, sponsored by the LIFE Foundation.
• http://www.nationwide.com/neb-disability-insurance-awareness-month.jsp

Older Americans Month
• Each year the Administration on Aging (AoA) issues a theme for Older Americans Month to assist our National Aging Services Network of state, tribal, area agencies on aging, and community services providers plan for activities that might take place in May or throughout the year. The theme of this year’s celebration—Older Americans: Connecting the Community—pays homage to the many ways in which older adults bring inspiration and continuity to the fabric of our communities. It also highlights the many ways technology is helping older Americans live longer, healthier and more engaged lives. Sponsored by the Administration on Aging.

September
Life Insurance Awareness Month
• An educational campaign designed to get consumers to take stock of their life insurance needs and protect their loved ones through proper life insurance planning, sponsored by LIFE Foundation.
• http://www.lifehappens.org/life-insurance-awareness-month/

October
International Credit Union Day, October 19, 2017
• Highlights the important economic and social contributions credit unions make to their communities worldwide, sponsored by Credit union National Association (CUNA).
• http://www.woccu.org/events/icuday

Get Smart About Credit Day, October 19, 2017
• Is a national campaign of volunteer bankers who help young people develop responsible credit habits, sponsored by the American Bankers Association Education Foundation. Usually takes place on the third Thursday in October.
• http://www.aba.com/Engagement/Pages/getsmartaboutcredit.aspx

National Estate Planning Awareness Week & Estate Planning Day Materials, October 16-22, 2017
• Estate planning is one of the most overlooked areas of personal financial management. It is estimated that over 120,000,000 Americans do not have up to date estate plans to protect themselves and their families in the event of sickness, accidents, or untimely death. This costs the affluent and middle classes wasted dollars and hours of emotional hardship each year that can be minimized with proper advanced planning and action. Sponsored by the National Association of Estate Planners and Councils.
• http://www.naepc.org/home/for-public

November
Long-Term Care Awareness Month
• The American Council of Life Insurers (ACLI) hopes that during Long-Term Care Awareness Month this November that Americans will take time to ensure they are prepared to address their potential long-term care needs. Sponsored by the American Council of Life Insurers.
• www.acli.com

Global Entrepreneurship Week November 13-19, 2017
• Global Entrepreneurship Week is the world’s largest celebration of the innovators and job creators, who launch startups that bring ideas to life, drive economic growth and expand human welfare. During one week each November, GEW inspires people everywhere through local, national and global activities designed to help them explore their potential as self-starters and innovators. Sponsored by Kauffman, The Foundation for Entrepreneurship, NYSE Euronext, and Dell.

- www.unleashingideas.org/about